

2014 NE Georgia Disability Expo & Conference

“Getting Fit for the Future!”

Date: Saturday February 1

Time: 8:30 am to 4:00 pm

Are you and your family “training for the future for your child with disabilities”? Do you have a goal, a plan, a destination in mind? Join us for a day of working out - building muscle by gathering information, and stretching toward the goal of a bright future!

The Tate Center
Grand Ballroom
University of Georgia, Athens
45 Baxter Street
(intersection of Baxter & Lumpkin)
Free parking!

Conference Coordinator:
Pam Walley
pmoore@madison.k12.ga.us

Conference Promotions:
Amy McCollum
amccollum@oconeeschools.org

- “Like” us on Facebook!
- Questions? Text “@NEGA4454” to 23559
- Visit www.negaresa.org & click the GLRS apple icon for conference details

Free
Registration!

Free lunch for first 200 registered!

CLASSES

- Health and fitness
- Medicaid waivers
- College and career readiness
- Social skills development
- Homework & study skill support
- Positive behavior support
- Mental health crisis intervention
- Special needs wills, trusts, financial planning
- Healthy development: growing up is natural
- Helping your student find their first job, or start their own business

EXHIBITS

- Recreation
- Support groups
- College disability services representatives
- Special needs attorneys
- Community resources

Sponsors:

NE Georgia Transition Team

Georgia Learning Resources System

