Evidence Statements: When teachers reach out to parents, students make more progress in both reading and math, researchers studying schools in low-income neighborhoods found student performance improved 40 to 50 percent faster if teachers did these three things: 1. Met face-to-face with each family at the beginning of the year to build relationships 2. Sent families materials each week on ways to help their children at home 3. Telephoned parents routinely with news about how their children were doing, not just if there were problems. Source: PTA Standards Families and school staff collaborate with community members to connect students, families, and staff to expanded learning opportunities, community services, and civic participation. Source: PTA Standards When parents understand the vital role that accommodations play in the success of their child's classroom education, then they can partner with the IEP team to discuss if the implementations are working successfully. Source: Epstein When parents have access to information and understand what their child is learning, then they are prepared to encourage their child to invest in a regular education diploma. Source: Epstein
